FIFA 19 Season Mode For the first time in the series, FIFA 19 will feature a season of the game - featuring a brand new story mode, special editions, and new features. FIFA 19 will release on September 28th, 2018. Story Mode - How Ronaldo Got His Groove Back The new story mode will take you behind the scenes of the most exclusive training sessions in which Ronaldo comes out from the shadows and literally steps into the spotlight. Follow Ronaldo as he moves from being a quiet youngster in the shadows of the biggest clubs to becoming the world's greatest footballer. Designed by World Class Studios, the game will feature a new story mode - featuring a brand new Ronaldo; a new story based on real events; and new game features set in Brazil, the United States and China. The game will also feature the moment of the first goal in the World Cup™, the 2018 FIFA World Cup™; and a brand new one-of-a-kind story based on the most exhilarating goal to ever be scored in a FIFA World Cup™. There will also be 12 mini-games; 24 teams; a collection of new celebrations; face of the week players; six-a-side tournaments; a new Free Kick and Penalty Kick button scheme; eleven new stadiums, twelve new player faces and a brand new career mode. The new free kicks and penalties; as well as the new celebration system; will go even further than ever before to convey the emotion of the footballing experience. Celebrate a goal with explosive dance moves such as the Harlem Shake, or show off in front of the goal mouth like Neymar as you join the opponents and score a spectacular volley. Free Kick and Penalty Kick - The Ball Is Now in Your Hands The new short goal kicks in FIFA 19 have been designed to make you feel more involved with the action at the two end of the pitch. There's no backpass button in FIFA 19, either. Each goal kick is a single, tap-to-pass - with a new button on the A.C.I.D. Engine that pops up to let you know you've got a chance to strike a ball into the bottom left corner of the goal.
